

Check out local Read Together stories, and share yours!

From Read Charlotte <elise@readcharlotte.org>
To Steve Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Reply-To Read Charlotte <elise@readcharlotte.org>
Date 2024-10-17 14:44

Real-life reading routines from local families

Reading together is a powerful way to make a difference in a child's life. It helps children learn about language and the world, and build literacy skills that will help them be successful in school.

And for a practice with so many benefits, reading together has few limitations. It can be done in a variety of ways; anywhere, at any time. We love hearing from Charlotte-area families about what their reading routine looks like, and sharing their stories in our blog.

Visit ReadTogetherCLT.org to hear from local families, explore different ways to read together, and get tips on incorporating this powerful practice into your family's routine!

If you're interested in sharing your family's Read Together story, we'd love to hear from you! Reach out to our Communications Manager, Elise, at elise@readcharlotte.org to learn more.

Celebrate reading at Library's annual EpicFest

Celebrate a love of reading with the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library at EpicFest, an annual literary festival at ImaginOn in uptown Charlotte.

The free festival runs from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9, and features nationally recognized children's and young adult authors and illustrators, along with literacy activities and lots of other family-friendly fun. For more information,

click here.

Help us recognize Reading Heroes!

Who is your child's Reading Hero?

Help us celebrate them through our Reading Hero program, which recognizes ordinary people in Mecklenburg County doing extraordinary things to improve children's reading!

Submit your nomination here.

Copyright © 2024 Read Charlotte, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

220 N. Tryon Street
Charlotte, North Carolina 28202

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.