Rep. Adams' Statement on the Passing of Quincy Jones

Remembering a transformational musical talent

CHARLOTTE – Congresswoman Alma S. Adams, Ph.D. (NC-12) released the following statement today on the passing of music producer, songwriter, and composer Quincy Jones, at the age of 91:

“The world has lost an iconic, creative genius whose music was the soundtrack of our lives for multiple generations. Quincy Jones was a legend who reminded us that we are all one. He brought us hits like 'We are the World,' Thriller, the musical score for The Color Purple, and the opening theme for Sanford and Son. His contribution to our society will long be remembered. Thank you for your service Quincy Jones. Your rent is fully paid.”
