Kristina Newman-Scott Named Knight Foundation's Vice President for Arts

Dear Stephen,

I'm pleased to share that Kristina Newman-Scott has been named Knight Foundation's new Vice President for Arts. With more than two decades of experience leading bold cultural initiatives and organizations, Kristina will spearhead Knight's arts program nationally and across Knight cities.

Kristina's passionate belief in the power of the arts to build and strengthen community is inspiring. She deeply understands the positive effect of a thriving arts ecosystem on local economies and she is an energetic champion of local artists and organizations building communities in which everyone can participate. I could not be more delighted to welcome her to Knight Foundation.

You can read more about Kristina in today's Miami Herald and on our website. Please join me in welcoming her to Knight.

Sincerely,

Maribel Pérez Wadsworth
President & CEO
