"My thing, what I hope to do all the time, is to be so completely myself. That's what I hope I am, to be so much myself that my audiences and even people who meet me are confronted. They're confronted with what I am, inside and out, as honest as I can be. And this way, they have to see things about themselves immediately." —Nina Simone

"You have to decide who you are and force the world to deal with you, not with its idea of you." —James Baldwin

"If I didn't define myself for myself, I would be crunched into other people's fantasies of me and eaten alive." —Audre Lorde

"The only way to deal with an unfree world is to become so absolutely free that your very existence is an act of rebellion." —Albert Camus
