Friend,

We're just 3 days away from our mid-month fundraising deadline, and I need your help to ensure we can continue pushing forward with the important work we've started together.

As you know, Senator Joyce Waddell has always been a strong advocate for North Carolina's future — fighting for education, economic opportunities, healthcare, and policies that uplift our communities. But the work is far from over. Your contribution today can make all the difference as we approach our fundraising goal.

We are only $5000 away from reaching our target, and with your support, we can close that gap in time.

A contribution of just $25 will help us fund the vital efforts that keep us moving forward in the fight for progress.

DONATE

Your contribution strengthens the foundation for community-driven programs and services that benefit everyone in North Carolina.

Together, we are creating change that lasts. But to keep going, we need your help.

Can we count on you to pitch in $25 today to help us reach our goal? Your donation will directly fund the campaign's efforts to make North Carolina a better place for everyone.

Thank you for your continued support. Let's finish strong!

Sincerely,
Team Waddell
