

If They Win Here, They'll Push This Everywhere

Friend,

Right now, North Carolina is at the center of a dangerous shift. Republicans in our state Senate just advanced a bill to eliminate the permit requirement for carrying a concealed weapon. This reckless move would allow virtually anyone over 18 to carry hidden firearms without background checks or safety training.

As a State Senator, I've heard firsthand from law enforcement leaders like Durham County Sheriff Clarence Birkhead, who warns this bill will "undermine public safety." Yet Republican leaders are ignoring these concerns and putting lives at risk.

This isn't just about North Carolina. It's part of a national trend where extreme politicians chip away at common-sense gun laws, making our communities less safe. If they succeed here, they'll use it as a model to push similar laws across the country.

Democrats in North Carolina are fighting to stop this, but we need your help. Our fight is about more than this one bill—it's about standing up for public safety, for reason, and for the values we all share.

With your support, we can hold the line against dangerous policies and elect leaders who will protect our communities. Every dollar you give helps us organize, advocate, and win.

Will you make a contribution today to help us fight back?
