Read Together: Meet the Jamison family

With a 12- and 4-year-old, life is busy for the Jamison family. Reading is part of their everyday life, but there's no set routine.

"It looks different every day," Taurus Jamison said. "It may be right after school, it may be at bedtime, it may be during bath time. For us, routine is just making sure that you're getting some type of reading in every day."

Hear more about how the Jamisons fit family reading time into their full schedule in our latest blog!

Happening now: Library's Summer Reading program

For more summer reading fun, check out the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library's Summer Reading program!

The annual program celebrates the joy of reading, encouraging kids to read over the summer and choose books they enjoy. Kids can track their progress to receive prizes, earning a trip to the Summer Reading Treasure Box after reading for 15 days, 30 days, 45 days, and 60 days. After reaching 45 days, kids will be entered into special prize drawings.
