Friend,

Last week when we said: "We suing everybody"...we meant it!

FIRST: The NAACP filed three lawsuits to prevent the Trump Administration from dismantling the Department of Education, to stop attacks on teaching history and issues labeled as "DEI", and to defend federally funded Equity Assistance Centers.

THEN: We sued Texas Governor Greg Abbott over the state's racially motivated gerrymandering to silence Black communities.

NOW: The NAACP has filed a lawsuit against the State of Missouri to prevent an illegal effort to hold a special legislative session aimed at redrawing political maps in a way that would reduce Black Missourians' voting power.

They don't want to teach TRUE American history, they don't want us using our vote as our voice; because they're scared of the strength of our community.

But we're not afraid of anything because the NAACP was founded in times like these, and we are leading the counter-offensive to these attacks.

We are using every tool at our disposal, but we urgently need your support. That's why we launched the Black Voter Defense Fund: to address systemic issues like racial gerrymandering through mobilization, legal advocacy, and education. Will you join our network of freedom fighters today and become a founding donor?
