

Save the date for Rhythm & Roots: Jazz, Blues and You

From Foundation For Black Philanthropy <BlackPhilanthropy@fftc.org>
To Steven Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Reply-To Foundation For Black Philanthropy <BlackPhilanthropy@fftc.org>
Date 2025-09-11 09:35

Save the Date | Nov. 13

Rhythm & Roots: Jazz, Blues and You
Celebrating Leaders, Legacies and the Power of Black Giving

Experience an evening where music, history and philanthropy come together. Rhythm & Roots: Jazz, Blues and You will feature performances by local jazz and blues artists, moving tributes and opportunities to celebrate and advance the mission of the Foundation For Black Philanthropy — inspiring a new generation of “Black Giving Back.”

Join us as we honor the rich legacy of Charlotte’s Black philanthropic community, spotlighting leaders past and present who have shaped our city, including:

Jimmie and Minnie McKee

founders of the legendary Excelsior Club

Attorney James Ferguson

Civil Rights Advocate and Legal Trailblazer

Lethia Jones Henderson

Beautician, Real Estate Investor, Philanthropic Pioneer and Community Builder

Elizabeth Randolph

Educator, Civic Leader and Philanthropist

Thursday, November 13

7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

Carolina Theatre

Belk Place

230 North Tryon Street | Charlotte, NC

Mark your calendar for this elegant, culturally inspired evening.

Formal invitation to follow.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Detailed information regarding event sponsorship opportunities will be available soon. Contact us at BlackPhilanthropy@fftc.org to indicate your interest.

Having trouble viewing this email? View online

Belk Place
220 N. Tryon Street
Charlotte, NC 28202
Phone: 704.973.4500

unsubscribe | privacy policy

©2025 FOUNDATION FOR THE CAROLINAS