

The threat to rural voices is real. We need YOUR help to fight back!

From Cynthia Wallace, Executive Director <info@newruralproject.org>
To Steve Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Reply-To <info@newruralproject.org>
Date 2025-09-25 11:02

New RURAL PROJECT

Hi Steve,

As we've seen in the news this week, there are forces trying their best to drown out our voices and stifle freedom of speech. New Rural Project is working to build a reality where every person has a say in their future, rural voices are heard across the state, and our needs are met.

Donate TODAY to keep rural voices heard

Your donation enables us to continue programming, such as our recently completed three-session Richmond Barbershop Conversations: Fruitful African-American Discussions on Empowerment (F.A.D.E.), where we built relationships and strategized with over 70 rural folks from the community.

Despite his skepticism about voting, enthusiastic barber Corey learned about the importance of "doing the homework" to make sure he is electing officials in his local community who will serve his best interest. By the end of the second session, he said the program is inspiring him to vote in the upcoming election and to keep educating his community—starting with a free concert featuring food, fun, and a local rapper, in partnership with NRP!

New Rural Project will never be silent, and we don't want rural voices to be silenced either. Your help is needed to ensure the megaphone continues to grow and get louder!

Thank you for standing with us,

Cynthia Wallace
Executive Director
New Rural Project

Donate TODAY to help grow NRP's megaphone!

New Rural Project is a 501(c)(4) registered non-profit organization. New Rural Project can accept unlimited contributions from individuals, PACs, corporations and unions, and other 501(c)(4) organizations, but contributions to New Rural Project are not tax-deductible.

New Rural Project
PO Box 77424
Charlotte, NC 28271
United States

If you believe you received this message in error or wish to no longer receive email from us, please unsubscribe.