Friend,

The NAACP unequivocally condemns the recent egregious attacks carried out by ICE in Chicago, where Black and Brown people, including young children, were violently dragged from their beds and detained in the middle of the night without cause.

Let me be clear: this was never about immigration — this was about normalizing the shredding of due process.

To those who believe in the Constitution, civility, human rights, and human decency, now is the time to stand with us.

Do not allow our nation to be desensitized to injustice. Stand with the families harmed in Chicago. Stand with every Black and Brown person who has been targeted simply for existing. Stand with the NAACP as we continue the fight for dignity, equality, and justice for all.

This is yet another attempt by this regime to numb our nation into accepting the inhumane treatment of Black and Brown people. These calculated displays of force are meant to instill fear, silence communities, and strip away the dignity of our people.

But let me be absolutely clear — we are not deterred, we are not backing down, and we are not scared in the least.

For over a century, the NAACP has rallied in defense of our communities. We have stood together against systemic oppression, brutality, and intimidation — and we will continue to do so.

We will rally, we will resist, and we will support those impacted by this most recent attack, as we always have.

We will not be silenced. We will not be intimidated. And we will never stop fighting for our community.
