Dear friends,

As we enter week 4 of the government shutdown, I want to talk about how the shutdown and cuts to federal programs are impacting you.

Join me and experts from North Carolina for my "Charlotte Matters" webinar series starting on Thursday, October 23.

Each webinar will address one of four key issues—healthcare, education, hunger, and housing—and how decisions made in Washington this year are impacting our Charlotte-Mecklenburg community. There will also be a Q&A portion at the end so we can directly answer your questions on these topics.
