Friend,

Our health and well-being are not up for debate. Access to affordable, quality healthcare is a fundamental right, not a bargaining chip. As the House of Representatives weighs whether to reopen the government, it must vote to protect our healthcare today. We're calling on each of our representatives to prioritize the needs of the American people first and foremost and reach an agreement on funding that includes Affordable Care Act (ACA) protections.

The Senate has already voted; now it's up to the House to ensure any funding agreement protects Americans' access to healthcare.

Join us tonight, November 12, at 8 p.m. ET for our Government Shutdown Rapid Response: No Healthcare, No Deal briefing.

During this call, you will:

- Hear directly from NAACP President and CEO Derrick Johnson,
- Get a real-time briefing and updates from policy leaders and Congressional Members on what's happening in Congress,
- Learn how ACA changes impact our community,
- Take action live on the call.

We are mobilizing across the country to deliver a clear message: No healthcare. No deal. Your voice matters in this moment. Join us!

P.S. Prior to this call, we'll be hosting a Power Hour at 1 p.m. ET today. Register now to join us in contacting the House to urge them to agree to fund the ACA subsidies that millions of Americans rely on to take care of themselves and their families. [Unable to join?
