Friend,

This year, our hearts are full of gratitude for everything we're thankful for above all else.

We're thankful for our community, a vibrant, powerful, and supportive network that stretches across the nation. The dedication of supporters like you, Friend, is the bedrock of our progress.

We're thankful for our culture, our rich history, art, and traditions. It is the music that moves our feet and the stories that stir our souls, reminding us of how far we've come as a people, and the greatness we embody.

We're thankful for the influence and collective power we hold to shape policies and bend the arc of the moral universe toward justice.

And most of all, we are thankful for our resilience. Through every challenge and every triumph, we have stood firm, proving that our strength is unbreakable and our spirit cannot be diminished.

This Thanksgiving, we celebrate the beauty and power of Black America. Your voice and belief in a better future fuels our work every single day. As we look ahead, we know that with your continued partnership, there is nothing we can't achieve, together.

Thank you for being such an essential part of the NAACP community.

Keep Advancing,
