Friend,

In 2026, we're bringing the movement to a city shaped by resilience, creativity, and community power: Chicago, Illinois. Mark your calendar. From July 18 – 22, 2026, the 117th NAACP National Convention will convene thousands of leaders, organizers, and advocates ready to shape the future of civil rights.

Chicago has long been a place where culture and activism meet, and next summer, it will become our home base for strengthening democracy, protecting communities, and building pathways to justice that reach every corner of the nation.

At Convention, you'll have opportunities to:

- Engage with the nation's top voices in civil rights, policy, and culture.
- Participate in sessions that influence the NAACP's priorities for the year ahead.
- Connect with organizers and advocates who are driving change at every level.
- Celebrate Black excellence in the arts and innovation, community leadership, and more.

Sign up to receive updates on registration, hotel accommodations, program announcements, speakers, and more. We can't wait to welcome you to Chicago.

Keep Advancing,
