KEEP ADVANCING

Friend,

As we close out 2025, we're taking a moment to appreciate the strength and resilience that carried our communities forward through this year. At every turn, when our rights were challenged or progress was threatened, supporters like you helped ensure the NAACP could step forward with purpose and clarity.

Your partnership made it possible for us to defend hard-won protections, elevate community voices, and push for lasting change that reaches every corner of this country.

This season, we're reminded that progress is not accidental. It's built through collective effort, shared hope, and our unwavering commitment to justice. As we move into 2026, we remain dedicated to protecting our rights, expanding opportunities, and advocating for a more equitable nation.

From all of us at the NAACP, we wish you a peaceful, restorative, and joyful holiday season. Thank you for standing with us.

Keep Advancing,
